The Curtain

This cool purplish grey is working toward the grey side of the palette.

When finding something similar, we prefer to go for more grayish than purple

We don’t want the room to be rather moody than colorful.

The Carpet

Following the same theory as the curtain, we are looking for a light bluish grey for the carpet. Anything leaning towards to grayish side of the light blue carpet family maybe considered.

The Wall

This wall surface material this is called Oxidized metal panel, or silver Patina panels that feature a rusty metal finishing on the surface. There is no restriction on what we choose, it depends on the availability of what is closer to this visual effect. We are going for slightly reddish warm tone for this material.

Hardware needed (critical for the taut look):

- Tension wire curtain system or Ceiling-mount recessed curtain track (e.g., Silent Gliss 1080 or Forest Group Ceiling Track)
- Fabric must be weighted at the hem (lead-weight tape sewn in) to keep panels perfectly straight

Silver Patina

Enquire About This Product

A cool silver-grey stainless steel finish with a softly weathered patina effect. The surface has layered grey, pewter, and subtle warm undertones, creating an aged architectural metal look while retaining the durability of stainless steel.

Soft decorations

The painting : Abstract graphic painting without subject matter with a color tone that matches the rest of the environment

The furniture : Warm beige tone thin marble stone surface material with a matt surface coming on black steel legs.

Vase and plant : Search for items that resemble this rendering as possible. Key is matte finished on all item that doesn’t reflect light while maintaining a quiet earthy natural tone.
